

Children's Literature Hawai'i, Hilo
Via Zoom
Monday June 7, 2021

"A Net Full of Stories, Real and Imagined"

Program Schedule

8:45	Zoom opens
9:00-9:10	Welcome by Kirsten Møllegaard: "A net full of stories, real and imagined"
9:15-10:30	Keynote speaker Caren Loebel-Fried: "What's in a name? How I told a hopeful story about extinction"
10:30-11:15	Kamalani Johnson: "Welo noho papa: The development of contemporary mo'olelo Hawai'i children's literature from 1980-present"
11:15-12:00	Jon K. Murakami: "How I got into making cartoons and children's books"
12:00-12:30	Lunch break
12:30-1:30	Children's librarians' roundtable with Jennifer Young, Stacy Bisgard, Gretchen Andrews: "How public libraries keep keiki engaged during the pandemic"
1:30-2:30	Justina Mattos: "Fostering Hawaiian language use through keiki theatre"
2:30-2:45	Closing remarks by Kirsten Møllegaard

Please fill out our online evaluations - thank you!

